"What can I say? Our guests are still talking about the food ten months later! The menu was well balanced, dainty cocktail buffet pieces and main courses with a contemporary twist. A chef that knows and understands about food and presentation Beetroot were truly wonderful- very supportive and professional. Keith is warm and charismatic. He put me at ease, took over the kitchen and allowed me to relax and enjoy the celebration. I cannot recommend Beetroot highly enough- what a wonderful name!"

"Keith and the team were superb, they took the time to get to know us and our ideas and created a menu that truly reflected these. A true testament to how good a chef Keith is was the starter of crispy poached eggs all delivered to the 170 guests perfectly cooked! I would definitely recommend them."

"Keith and his team went far beyond the service we expected of a caterer. He pretty much ran the show, coordinating and working seamlessly with all other suppliers from the moment the marquee went up, to the clear-up the morning after. We had a tasting 6 months before the wedding and were very impressed but wondered how that would translate into bulk catering. We were blown away - every bit as good and attention to detail on each plate. Nothing was too much trouble. Give the man a medal!"

"Keith was "onside" from the beginning. He gave us an excellent tasting session which made us really excited about his food. The presentation, colours and taste of his nibbles and beef en crouete main course were excellent on the day, a day that was like a furnace in the marquee never mind the kitchen!"

"Keith & Amanda were full of great ideas that built upon & enhanced our own. They are a tour de force of creativity & perfectionists in what they produce. They were beyond helpful throughout the process. They even arranged vintage crockery as a wedding present to us! They personify flair and fun."

"As soon as we met Keith he asked us about our whole day, then after asking our opinion on the food he began to give us plenty of other ideas and suggestions. He showed obvious expertise but at the same time did not baffle us with "industry jargon". He happily cooked for both sets of parents, listened to all requests and changes and acted upon this. He communicated with all our other suppliers to ensure the preparation and day ran smoothly. His staff, the food and presentation were exceptional."

"beetroot catering offered a fantastic service from our first meeting to discuss our requirements throughout until our wedding day. They interpreted exactly what tastes we wanted and presented every part of the meal perfectly on the day providing a faultless waiting service from start to finish."

"The service was absolutely brilliant. Keith was wonderful at communicating with us and we felt very able to leave it all in his hands. He was also very calm and professional throughout. The ONLY tiny complaint I would have would be that I didn't love the main course as much as I thought I would. But others did, and everything else was great."

"Keith and Amanda are amazing, from the day we first rang through to the wedding day they made everything so unbelievably easy. Keith's ideas were great and the food he produced was out of this world. It didn't just stop with the catering any extras we needed Keith sorted at the drop of a hat. We didn't go through any stress leading up to the wedding and the only thing we can put it down to was Keith and Amanda being available to sort any issues or just talk through the event."

Why They Booked (in random order)

"We spoke to a number of caterers and found that Beetroot offered the most personal service. References provided by people were absolutely amazing and I can now see why. Keith's interpretation of our likes into a menu was brilliant and creative."

"Their excellent reputation, their excitement responding to our ideas and helping us to achieve our vision. And the proof was in the pudding, everything was delicious and presented beautifully."

"We had sampled Keith's food at a previous event"

"We wanted to use and support local businesses."

"Keith was recommended by family and friends. We met and he instantly understood what we were looking for. He went as far as to create a timeline for the day, so we knew how food and drinks would fit in with other proceedings. The tasting was delicious too - a really classy little dining room with chef's kitchen, like something off masterchef! There was no charge for this, and the overall cost was incredibly competitive (cheaper, even) compared with other caterers. His communication was excellent at all times - something that can't be said for all suppliers! I couldn't fit this in above but wanted to add that feedback from guests has been absolutely brilliant too - I suspect and hope that Keith will have a fair bit of repeat business! One other thing - timings slipped a bit on the day but Keith took this all in his stride and still managed to deliver 120 plates of perfectly cooked lamb"

"I did some internet research and looked at several companies. Beetroot were by far the most flexible in terms of what they could offer, I didn't want a package, I wanted something special that was created for us."

"3 separate friends recommended him. Keith was very accommodating and such a good craftsman. He instills complete confidence."

"After meeting Keith we knew that he would be able to do a good job and that we could leave it all in his hands."

"Keith came across as very knowledgeable, and we both immediately trusted that he would help make our day perfect. We knew we were right as soon as we tasted a tester of our meal with our parents."
